THE GREAT MASTERS IN THE LOUVRE GALLERY.

Attention may be called to a unique and sumptuous work which can be procured through THE COLLECTOR AND ART CRITIC. It consists of a complete review of the development of the art of painting from its earliest inception to the twentieth century, embracing all schools, from the primitive Italians to the men of 1830, written by the most noted European authorities, and as exemplified by the masterpieces in the Louvre Galleries. A general introduction has been written by M. Georges Lafenestre, the curator of the Louvre. The Flemish School is treated by M. Camille Benoit, Conservator of the Louvre. The School of the Eighteenth Century is handled by M. Pierre de Nolhac, Conservator of the Versailles Museum, and M. André Michel, of the Beaux Arts. The Italian Schools are discussed by M. Eugene Muntz, of the Italian Institute; the School of 1830, by M. Antonin Proust; the Dutch School, by M. Arsene Alexandre; the Napoleonic School, by M. Frederic Masson; the Precursors of the French School, by M. Gustave Geffroy, and the Spanish School, by M. Maurice Hamel.

As long ago as 1803, and 1815 attempts have been made to illustrate the matchless collections of the Louvre Galleries, its Grand Salon, the Gallery of Apollo, and the Grand Gallery, and to make its riches accessible to those who could not visit the museum, or who wished to have its treasures always before them. The methods of reproduction then in vogue were, however, utterly inadequate to meet the just demands of the present generation of art lovers. The modern processes of photo-gravure fulfil this demand and enable us to see each masterpiece reproduced with absolute faithfulness and not interpreted by another's hand or eye. The house of Goupil & Co., well known for the perfection of its publications, both in black and colors, have supplied the illustrations.

The price of this unique edition de luxe will be sent on application.
